Seal	(j) To adopt and use a common seal, but such seal may or may not be affixed to instruments executed by the Trustees or the offices of the trust, and the absence of said seal shall in no wise affect the validity of such instrument; also, to place upon any instrument executed by the Trustees, or officers of the trust, any device or seal that may be required by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or of any other state wherein said trust may have business transactions.

Section 1. The Trustees may hire suitable offices for the transaction of the business of the trust, appoint, remove or reappoint such officers or agents as they may think best, define their duties and fix their compensation.

The Trustees shall be paid from the trust estate, or the income thereof, from time to time a remuneration at the rates generally current for such services in Boston, Massachusetts, based upon the value and nature of the services rendered by such Trustees. In the event of there being a variation in the practice, the Trustees shall have the right to decide within the limits of such variation what amount is the proper charge for such services. They shall be reimbursed from the trust estate for their expenses and disbursements, including expenses for clerks, transfer agents, office hire, counsel fees, etc. and for all losses and liabilities by them incurred in administering the trust, and for the payment of such expenses, disbursements, losses, and liabilities, the Trustees shall have a lien on the trust estate prior to any rights or interests of the Shareholders thereto.

Trustees' Signature and Receipts.

Section 2. The Trustees may authorize one of their number to sign, execute, acknowledge and deliver any note, deed, certificate or other instrument in the name of, and in behalf of, the trust, and upon such authorization such signature, acknowledgment or delivery shall have full force and effect as the act of all of the Trustees.

The receipt of the Trustees or any of them, or any of the officers or agents thereunto authorized, for moneys or property paid or delivered to them or any of them, shall be an effectual discharge therefor to the person paying or delivering the same.

Section 3. Every note, bond, contract, instrument, certificate, share, or undertaking, and every other act or thing whatsoever executed or done by the Trustees or any of them in connection with the trust, shall be conclusively taken to have been executed or done only in their or his capacity of Trustee or Trustees under this agreement, and such Trustee or Trustees shall not be personally liable thereon.

Every such note, bond, contract, instrument, certificate, share, or undertaking, made or issued by the Trustees shall recite that the same is executed or made by them not individually, but as Trustees under this agreement, and that the obligations of any such instrument are not binding upon any of the Trustees individually, but bind only the trust estate, and may contain any further recital which they or he may deem appropriate, but the omission of such recital shall not operate to bind the Trustees individually.

Any person, firm, corporation, or association dealing with the Trustees herein in connection with any instrument executed hereunder, which purports to be executed by the said Trustees for and on behalf of the trust estate, shall be justified in considering such instrument duly and properly executed by the said Trustees, and that they were duly authorized thereunto, and the instrument was duly executed in accordance with the terms and provisions of this indenture, unless such person, firm, corporation, or association shall have actual notice of a breach of the covenants of this indenture.
